TELEGRAM TO SANTA

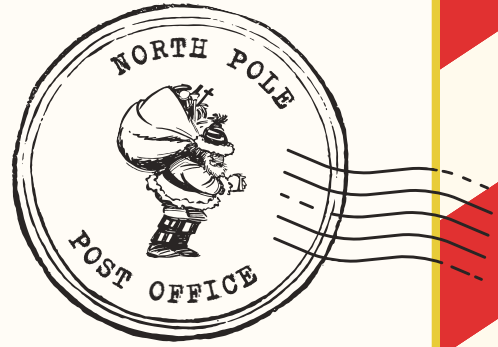

Dear Santa, how are you? I hope you and Mrs. Claus are very well. I've been very good this year, you can ask mom and dad. So, I have some ideas for my Christmas presents, here they are:

I hope you can make my wishes come true, or at least some of them...
Say hi to Rudolph from me!

Direct hand delivery to Mr. Santa Claus, and only him.

*Dear Thomas,
Merry Christmas!*

Hello little friend! I've heard you've been very good this year. You've been a great student, you've helped mom and dad at home, and you've been kind and loving with your family and friends. Good for you!

I'm preparing your presents with the elves! You might hear my sleigh and some laughter from funny Rudolph on Christmas Eve.

Don't forget to leave some cookies and milk for us. We love them!

Ho! Ho! Ho!

Santa Claus

Dear

MICHAEL:

How are you? I am writing to you from the North Pole!
As Christmas is approaching, my fantastic helpers and I have already started to work hard.

I have heard that you have been very good this year, both at home and at school. I know you have been very kind and good to others. I am so proud of you!

It's been a long year, have you made your wish list yet?
Send it to me at the following address:
333 Elves St., North Pole.

I hope I can fulfill some of your wishes!
With much love,

Santa Claus

A faint, light-colored illustration of Santa Claus is visible in the background. He has a large white beard, a red hat with a white pom-pom, and is holding a small object in his hand. The illustration is positioned behind the text and a dashed line.

Dear Lina,

I'm writing this to let you know I got your letter. I spoke to my workshop elves a while ago, and I'm excited for you to see them under your tree in a couple of days. I hope you will like them. You've been a very wonderful kid this year. You're kind, generous, and thoughtful to your family and friends. I had a chat with your parents over milk and cookies and they told me they're so proud of you for being a terrific kid. Keep it up!

Remember: It pays to be on your best behavior always.

Sincerely,

Santa Claus
